

Online Bug Encounters

At Home Activity

Spring is a great time to be on the look out for butterflies. As you keep your eyes peeled for butterflies, remember that they are bilaterally symmetrical. When you spot a butterfly, take a close look at their wings. They will look exactly the same on each side of their body. Be sure to keep that in mind as you color in these beautiful spring butterflies.

Illustrations from www.thebutterflysite.com/butterfly-coloring-pages.shtml

